Sworn in by Board Solicitor Boraske

The State Statute changed regarding the previous approved application. In April of 2022, there were new rulings that changed the definition of making a firearm compliant. Gunsmithing needs to be added to the terminology. The O-1 License does not allow a dealer to work on a weapon until it is turned over to “manufacturing”. The State now regulates the sale of a weapon. The weapon must be sold to an authorized dealer first, and then to another client. During the time frame that the weapon is in the possession of the dealer, it is considered the dealer's inventory.

Basically, the resolution needs to change the terminology of "Readily" to "Remanufacturing".

Legacy owners are in the process of obtaining the O-7 Manufacturing License. The O-7 License allows for the manufacture, sales and distribution of Firearms.
