RESOLUTION FOR POLICE OFF-DUTY EMPLOYMENT RATE FOR CERTAIN TOWNSHIP AND MAPLE SHADE BOARD OF EDUCATION SPECIAL EVENTS

WHEREAS, the Township of Maple Shade has determined that a policy is needed to manage temporary off-duty police work by establishing requirements for certain Township and Maple Shade Board of Education Special Events, as defined herein, to follow when the services of off-duty police are required; and

WHEREAS, management of off-duty police work requires established payment schedules, timetables for making requests, hourly rates for off-duty police officers, Workers' Compensation coverage, liability insurance coverage, and fees for the use of municipal vehicles; and

WHEREAS, the Township Police Department administers all aspects of the Township Police Department's off-duty program related to scheduling and the Township Finance Office handles all escrow, billing and collections.

BE IT RESOLVED, by the Mayor and Council of the Township of Maple Shade that the following requirements are established with the following provisions:

1. Effective January 1st, 2025 when an officer works a Township sponsored event, such as, but not limited to: 4th of July Parade, Fireworks, Touch a Truck etc. or a school district security detail at a sporting event, graduation or other similar event, the officer(s) scheduled to work the event will be paid their standard overtime rate. These events are not to be paid at the Police Outside Services Rate; and
2. The Maple Shade School District, by way of agreement has agreed that any security detail at a sporting event, graduation or other similar event, will be paid to the officer(s) at a minimum of 3 hours in length. This agreement does not change the previously agreed upon language involving the School Resource Officer with respect to the School District and their agreed upon events that the School Resource Officer shall work. Those events as dictated in the PBA Local 267 Contract shall be paid in accordance with Article 19(B).

RESOLUTION 2024-R-208

RESOLUTION FOR POLICE OFF-DUTY EMPLOYMENT RATE

WHEREAS, the Township of Maple Shade has determined that a policy is needed to manage temporary off-duty police work by establishing requirements for private employers, as defined herein, to follow when the services of off-duty police are required; and

WHEREAS, management of off-duty police work requires established payment schedules, timetables for making requests, hourly rates for off-duty police officers, Workers' Compensation coverage, liability insurance coverage, and fees for the use of municipal vehicles; and

WHEREAS, the Township Police Department administers all aspects of the Township Police Department's off-duty program related to scheduling and the Township Finance Office handles all escrow, billing and collections.

BE IT RESOLVED, by the Mayor and Council of the Township of Maple Shade that any private contractor must adhere to the requirements established in the following provisions:

1. For purposes of this Resolution, the term private contractor shall mean any entity, public or private, other than the Township of Maple Shade that is hiring a police officer of the Township of Maple Shade to provide security, traffic control, or other police-related services for the private contractor's business, project, or function.
2. Township police officers may work for a private contractor on their off-duty hours with the approval of the Chief of Police or his/her designee and provided that the Chief determines, in his/her sole discretion, that there are sufficient police personnel available for such work, that the off-duty work will not interfere with the needs of the Township.
3. Any private contractor requesting the services of a Township police officer for off-duty police related services shall contact the Maple Shade Police Department no less than 48 hours prior to the start of work to schedule officers. Exceptions to the 48-hour requirement will be for those contracts that require work directly affecting the life, safety and welfare of township residents.
4. Private employers will be billed a minimum of four (4) hours when work is cancelled with less than two hours' notice.
5. The Township hereby establishes an escrow account dedicated to the payment of Township police officers for off-duty police related services at the rate set forth herein. The Chief Financial Officer shall ensure exact funds from the payments of off-duty employers are deposited into the escrow account prior to the start of any off-duty work.

TOWNSHIP OF MAPLE SHADE

6. If, at any time, the deposit in the escrow account is less than the amount of funds that are needed to pay for off-duty police related services, the Chief Financial Officer, Chief of Police or his/her designee shall notify the contractor of same and ensure the account is replenished. No additional work may be performed until escrow is replenished.
7. The hourly rate to be billed to the contractor for off-duty police related activity shall be $125.00 / per hour for the year 2025. This rate shall cover the off-duty police officer's hourly rate, all applicable taxes, the cost for the use of the police vehicle, plus a reasonable sum representing the administrative costs and any overhead or out-of-pocket expenses the Township of Maple Shade may incur for providing this service.
8. The private contractor shall provide proof of Workers' Compensation coverage in the event an off-duty police officer is injured while working an approved off-duty assignment.
9. The private contractor shall be required to submit a signed Indemnification and Hold Harmless Agreement and Certificate of Insurance from an insurance company authorized to do business in New Jersey. The Workers' Compensation and Employers' Liability coverage shall be in accordance with the laws of the State of New Jersey. The Commercial General Liability insurance coverage policy limits must be not less than $1,000,000.00 per occurrence and $2,000,000.00 general aggregate for bodily injury and property damage, including premises/operations and broad form contractual liability. Said Certificate shall name the Township of Maple Shade as an additional insured for all coverages except Workers' Compensation.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that all Township employees and officials are hereby authorized and directed to take all action necessary and appropriate to effectuate the terms of this Resolution.
