Public Portion Guidelines

The Township of Maple Shade Business and Economic Development Commission welcomes public input and appreciates the engagement of our community members. The public comment portion of all meetings is designed to allow individuals to express their opinions, concerns, and questions.

Here are some guidelines for the public comment session:

1. Timing: Each speaker will be allotted a specific time limit, usually three (3) minutes, to address the commission. Please be mindful of this time constraint to ensure that all individuals have an opportunity to speak.
2. Respect: We ask that all comments be respectful and civil. Personal attacks, derogatory language, or offensive behavior will not be tolerated.
3. Speaking: To speak, please wait until the public comment portion. Once the session is open, raise your hand to be recognized by the chairperson and when called upon, please stand, and state your name and address for the record.
4. Response: The commission may not respond immediately to comments made during the public comment portion session. Your input will be considered and may be addressed during a future committee session.

We appreciate your participation and your dedication to our community. Your input is valuable and contributes to informed decision-making. Thank you for your cooperation in maintaining a constructive and respectful atmosphere during the public comment session.
